An Oregon paper contains the following description of a genuine old backwoodsman. A few days ago an emigrant train was making all sail northward up through our valley, and the wild looking driver seemed to labor under great excitement, cracking his "black snake" round the legs of his spavined horses, and yelling at every jump they made. "Halloo?" said we. "Hoora!" said he, "Whar's Rooshun America!" We explained the object of his inquiries lay about twelve hundred miles to the northward and other foreign residents are sending or hard for the legs of his inquiries lay about twelve hundred miles to the northward and other foreign residents are sending or hard for the legs of his spavined to the northward and other foreign residents are sending or hard for the stituted an independent government for the stituted an independent government for the just as hard to reach as "Jordan," besides being almost uninhabited, except by Indians and grizzlys. I've hearn that the big folks in Washington have boughten a track where there's nothing but bars and Injuns, and them's the only neighbors I want. I lived in old Missouri, stranger," he added, "and I'll be dog-goned stranger, if the darn railroads haint cut the country all to pieces and druv the game all away. I've heard 'em talk about making one in Oregon, and I'll just be durned if I want any Oregon in mine. Hoora for Rooshun America!"

Can France Fight it Out—The Spirit From a Letter by W. H. Huntington to the Cincinn

Paris, August 30, 1870. - Just in propo tion as the Napoleonic regime (already ansien) goes down the French nation comes up. The enervation of the public spirit by twenty years of that regime is fearful. Disaster is acting on it now as a tonic. WANTED-A GOVERNING HEAD. Still, day by day, our Provisional government is changing its character and growing more efficiently vigorous in its measures of defence. That is, it is growing less and less constitutional, yielding more and more to the presure of patriotic public opinion and the control of the Leftward members of the Legislatif Corps. It is impossible to separate now the political from the military question, for understanding one you must understand the other.

There are two different powers in Paris, one official—the Provisional Government, which satisfies nobody, but is accepted and tolerated by everybody; the second is a Republican constant communication with the population during the day, through the twenty-five del-egates remaining in the arrondissements, and at night by public meeting. THE PRUSSIANS REPULSED IN ATTEMPTING TO CUT THE ORLEANS RAILWAY. LONDON, Sept. 20—Special to the World says: The Prussians sustained a serious check yesterday in a third attempt to cut the Orleans Railway. After their repulse at Invessy and before Fort Ivery, they yesterday undertook to force a passage and secure the control of the line. They were met in their advance from Corbiel upon the main trunk of the Orleans line at the hamlet of Wissons, a village commanded by low hills and buried in woods, by the French. The Prussian columns of 30,000 men was encountered by a French force of about equal French, north of Breraun and Forest. Next numbers, posted in a most advantageous po-sition, and with formidable artillery. The On Monday the French were driven from engagement was extremely severe and lasted nearly six hours. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 22—Hon. A.

L. Randall, Chairman of the National Democratic Congressional Committee, having called upon Hon. Jas. Brooks, as a member of the Ways and Means Committee, to reply to the reduction of taxes circular issued by Henry Wilson, as Chairman of the Republi-can Congressional Committe, he has pub-lished that reply. Brooks states that what reductions have been made in tariff have been in the interest of capital rather than labor, and that the Senator of Massachusettes may well be content with it while the West and South cannot be, as the reductions have all been made in the capital interests of Massa-chusettes. These allegations are fortified by statistical tables. Wilson will doubtless re-

Cure of Gravel of Five Years' Standing-Stone Passed and to be seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869. H. T. HELMBOLD. DEAR SIR: We introduced your Fluid "Extrac Buchn'' in this country about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with un versal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county named J. P. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel. About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without tions are gaining favor every day. Very respectfully, yours, &c.,

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of Long Standing-

WESTPORT, CGNN., Sept. 5, 1860. И. Т. Икамполо, Esq. DEAR SIE: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu'' about two weeks since for an affection of the Gravel, Bladder and Kidney. I have suffered by spells, very much for a few days past. But yeserlay relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and tirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its Yours, truly, curative powers.
